Hi Ellen,

I'm so sorry for this email so late in the day.

A writer from the LA Times had previously written a story regarding preservation of the Parker Center. Our Communications Director had been in contact with them and has asked me for suggestions of people in Little Tokyo who would be appropriate for the writer to contact and to speak to, and get the full truth and perspective of the Little Tokyo community.

Would it be ok for me to share your Yahoo email address?

Please let me know.

Thank you,
Megan
